With the buildings & improvements thereon, the same consisting of one dwelling house, 5 rooms; dining room and cook house, store house and out house—with all the furniture therein, consisting of beds, tables, chairs, &c A portion of this land, say 16 acres, is under lease for five years, from Jan. 1, 1875, there being three years yet to run, at $130 per year, payable semi-annually, in advance. Nearly the whole of this land is susceptible of cultivation for rice, as there is a sufficiency of water for the purpose, and it is really a fine opportunity for cultivators.

This parcel will be put up at auction in one lot, including houses and furniture.

Being an ili of Waiahole, Koolaupeko, Oahu, and more fully described in survey by C.J. Lyons, and containing an area of 225 acres, with all the buildings and improvements thereon.

The land has a number of streams upon it, and a portion can undoubtedly be used for cultivation of Rice, Sugar or Coffee. The upper portion is well wooded, and the pasture land is as This piece will be put up in one lot with building.

serious charges of incompetency and favoritism in the local court of Hilo, which argue a very unsatisfactory state of things there. We beg to suggest to our correspondents that a properly couched petition to the Judges of the Supreme Court is the best course to be pursued.

GYMNASIUM .- On Monday evening last, a number of ladies and gentlemen were present by invitation at Mr. Chas. Derby's School for gymnastics, and expressed themselves as highly pleased at what they saw. We are glad to learn that our young men are beginning to appreciate this valuable aid to physical development.

HOOLA LAHUI.-It is gratifying to hear of the truly humane operations of the native societies which are known by the above title. Their members very quietly and unostentatiously but effectually search out among the people those who are sick or in want, and gratuitously supply them with medical attendance, food and clothing. We have heard of numerous instances wherein this heaven-born charity has been timely and judiciously bestowed. "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me." *

A Long Passage.-The bark M. B. Roberts, which arrived on Thursday evening from San Francisco, was twenty-eight days on the passage, owing to head winds for the first seventeen days and light winds and calms the remainder of the time. The longest passage on record was that of the bark Comet, some years ago, which vessel disgusted Capt. James Smith by occupying thirty-five days on the

In a former issue of this paper we called attention to the dangerous habit of carriages, and especially those on hire, going at full speed through the streets of the city on dark nights without being provided with side-lights. But a few evenings ago, a party of ladies and gentlemen walking along the sidewalk were in danger of being injured by such a carriage passing close to the curb-stone. We again call attention to this dangerous habit; or must the cossation of it wait until some one, woman, or child, is

A SAD FATE. -The San Francisco papers of the 3d inst. relate the story of two boys, carried out to sea by the tide in a sail boat, which was upset in the rollers on the bar, and the boys, after clinging to the bottom for a time, relinquishing their hold from exhaustion and drowning. One of these boys was young Barbee, who it will be remembered by our readers, arrived here in the schooner Kate Blackiston, Capt. Peterson, on the 25th of April last, from San Francisco via Waimea, Kauai, and not on a "hired plunger," "with three companions," &c., as set forth in Wednesday's Gazette. He dwelt on the gravity of the situation and spoke of the departure of the plenipotentiaries; of the possibilities of war and the horrors attending it; the injury it would do the internal affairs of the country; the impossibility of procuring funds for war, and the fact that Turkey could not rely upon an alliance. Several speeches followed, the most noteworthy being made by the Greek and Armenian Patriarchs. All the speakers repelled the idea of the acceptance of the European proposals. Midbat Pasha again pointed out the gravity of the crisis and the distress which would result from war. After hearing all the speakers the Council unanimously rejected the proposals amid shouts of "Death before dishonor!"

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 20.—Safvet Pasha opened the proceedings at to-day's sitting of the Conference by reading a note stating that the Porte might come to an understanding with the Powers on certain points of detail, but would pass over in allance the proposal relative to the appointment of and are moreover the cause of a general feeling Governors and international Commission, and propose local elective Commissions presided over by Ottoman functionaries. Finally, Safvet suggested that the settlement of the question relating to Servia, and Montenegro be received for ulterior decision. Thereupon Lord Salisbury declared that, the Porte having refused the two chief guarantees demanded by the Powers, there is no longer any common basis for discussion, and the Conference therefore must be regarded at and end. General Ignatieff, the Russian Plenipotentiary, spoke in a similar manner. He declared the Porte's proposals unacceptable, iaid great stress upon the reit will never be leased again for such a purpose; and we have the further gratification of being informed the hope that Turkey would not undertake hostilities against Servia and Montenegro, because the position of her Christian subjects must be respected. has led to his death. WANTS TO BACK OUT .- Several years since, a native leased to a Chinaman a number of extensive and valuable taro patches, for a term of twenty years, at an annual rental of $25-ten years of the rent being paid in advance. With the money thus obtained the native built a shell of a wooden house, but which is quite unfinished, and having no more money, went to work on his own land for the Chinaman at $1.50 per week. The latter is planting rice in the former taro patches, and of course has got a remarkably "good thing." This makes the native owner of the land unhappy, and he is consulting native legal talent with a view to breaking the lease. The probabilities are that he will incur useless expenses that will sink his wooden house, if not

A lawyer who should so declare would be the very reverse of shrewd. "The intention of the Legislature was unquestionably," &c., but, it "furnishes another instance of the hasty and imperfect manner in which some of our laws are enacted," and it was passed "without probably ten members knowing its details." Where then does the intention come in? It " was brought in during the last few days of the CASTLE & COOKE. session," &c. It was brought in during the first week in September, and the session closed on the 30th of that month. The Hon. Mr. Kaai introduced it, but it was understood that the Hon. Mr. Preston DERSONS WISHING TO ENGAGE IN THE was its author, and the legislation of the session which emanated from him, well known as a "shrewd lawyer," will bear close examination.
